

John P. Mulligan, MD, MBA, FACEP
Regional Vice President and Treasurer

Dr. John Mulligan serves as Regional Vice President for our sites in Illinois, Indiana and Iowa.

Since joining EPMG in 2004, Dr. Mulligan has served many roles including medical director at St. Mary's Medical Center in Hobart, Indiana, Franciscan St. Anthony Memorial, in Michigan City, Indiana, Thorek Hospital in Chicago, IL, and Mercy Hospital in Clinton, Iowa. He is the EMS director for several services in Indiana including Air Superior. Dr. Mulligan has been instrumental in the successful implementation of several electronic medical record systems in various emergency departments as well as many quality initiatives and enhancements of patient satisfaction.

Dr. Mulligan received his BS from Loyola University Chicago and his medical degree from Loyola Stritch School of Medicine. He completed his residency in emergency medicine at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore. Dr. Mulligan received his executive MBA from Northwestern Kellogg School of Business. Dr. Mulligan also served 8 years in the US Army as a medical officer. He holds medical licenses in Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Ohio, Virginia, and Delaware. Dr. Mulligan is an instructor for ACLS and PALS, and is an active member of the ICEP EMS committee. Dr. Mulligan is board certified as a Diplomat of the American Board of Emergency Medicine and is a Fellow in the American College of Emergency Physicians. Dr. Mulligan is currently a member of the EDPMA Board of Directors.

Dr. Mulligan was appointed to the EPMG Board of Directors in 2008 and has served as company Treasurer since 2010. In addition to his leadership role at EPMG, Dr. Mulligan holds a faculty appointment as Associate Professor of Emergency Medicine at Loyola University Medical Center.

Dr. Mulligan is married and has four children; who he enjoys spending his free time with. He describes himself as fun and hardworking (in that order).