

Donald "Joey" Woodyard

Donald "Joey" Woodyard serves as the current Chief Business Officer and Vice Chair for Finance & Administration at the Indiana University School of Medicine Department of Emergency Medicine. In this role, he sits in the IUEM Department's leadership cabinet, working closely with the Chair, to develop and implement strategic initiatives across the clinical, administrative, educational and research domains. Prior to coming to IUEM in 2013, Mr. Woodyard served on the faculty at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill's School of Medicine as the Director of Assessment. During his 8-year tenure at UNC, he oversaw several core divisions of the Offices of Medical Education, including patient simulation and continuing professional development (CME), and chaired the school's interprofessional education development efforts. With more than 10 years working in an academic health center environment, Mr. Woodyard has presented on evolutionary and emerging issues in medical education to international and interdisciplinary audiences.