

Ghazala Sharieff, MD, MBA
Medical Director of Quality and Medical Management
Scripps Health

Dr. Sharieff serves as Corporate Director, Physician Outreach and Medical Management, Scripps Health, San Diego and is also the Director of Pediatric Emergency Medicine for Palomar-Pomerado Health System in San Diego, California. She is a Professor of Pediatrics at the University of California, San Diego. Dr Sharieff is a nationally and internationally recognized lecturer on topics in pediatric emergency medicine, conflict management and team building. She has been awarded several regional and national teaching awards. She has served on many national committees including: Past Chair of the ACEP Pediatric Emergency Medicine Committee; Past Chair of the ACEP Pediatric Section; the ACEP Public Relations Committee; the AAEM Board of Directors; and was also the Co-Chair of the AAEM Education Committee. She is well published and has authored multiple research articles, book chapters and review articles.