

Stacie Norris, MBA, CCS-P, CPC, Director of Coding Quality Assurance

Stacie Norris is the Director of Coding Quality Assurance for Emergency Medicine services for Zotec MMP. She has been with Zotec MMP for 15 years.

She has a Bachelor Degree in Finance and a Master Degree in Business Administration from the University of Central Florida. She is certified as a Coding Specialist-Physician Based (CCS-P) by the American Health Information Management Association (AHIMA), in which she is an active member. She is an AHIMA ICD-10 Certified Trainer. She is also certified as a Certified Professional Coder (CPC) by the American Academy of Professional Coders (AAPC).

Stacie serves as a member on the CNAC (Coding Nomenclature and Advisory Committee) for National ACEP. She also serves on the EDPMA Coding and Documentation Committee and the Quality Committee. Stacie has had articles published for ED Coding Alert, a national Emergency Medicine coding and reimbursement newsletter.

Stacie has 18 years of experience in healthcare coding and billing. She has a diverse background including working on claims at CNA, The Hartford and Metropolitan Life, as well as working in hospital settings and at the Florida Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.